

Ann Adalist-Estrin, M.S. is an Author, Speaker and Consultant to a wide variety of agencies serving children and families in the United States and Canada. Her seminar topics span a wide range of interests and ages and are popular with parents and professionals alike. She is the author of the Children of Prisoners Library and co-author of Responding to Children and Families of Prisoners: A Community Guide.

Ann is a Child and Family Therapist and Director of BRIDGES: Parent-Child Counseling and Consultation Services in Jenkintown, Pennsylvania. Ann Adalist-Estrin was Founder and Director of the Parent Resource Center in Wyncote, Pennsylvania and Director of Incarcerated Parents and Their Children – Consulting Services. She is a trainer for the Healthy Steps For Young Children Project at Boston University School of Medicine. She is an Affiliated Consultant with Family and Corrections Network.

She has held adjunct faculty positions at Temple University, University Of The Arts, and Community College of Philadelphia. She regularly teaches a seminar for childcare directors at Holy Family College, Philadelphia and “Those Left Behind” a graduate course for teachers addressing the needs of children of incarcerated parents at Gratz College in Philadelphia. She serves on the Board of Directors of the Family and Corrections Network, Virginia, and has two daughters born in 1980 and 1987.

For more information about how Ann can help with your training and consulting needs, contact: Family and Corrections Network, 32 Oak Grove Road, Palmyra, VA 22963, 434/589-3036, fcn@fcnetwork.org, <http://www.fcnetwork.org>